

Arnold Chapter 4 – “It’s Nobody’s Guess”

Circle the better answer from the boldfaced options provided

1. Anyone any one may apply, the program director said.
2. Fighting to meet deadlines is an everyday every day part of the PR business.
3. Sometime Some time will be required to complete this assignment.
4. Jones said he doesn’t know any way anyway to get a better seat.
5. Smith said she doesn’t want to interview the actor anyway any way.
6. My journalism professor is the only one of my teachers who is are requiring students to write a term paper.
7. None of the advertising account executives is are pleased with the new guidelines.
8. Either the mayors or the governor is are going to be disappointed with the outcome of the election.
9. Crosley is more talented than any any other designer on the staff.
10. The stylish new stylish, new computers look good in the office.
11. The flag is red, white and blue red, white, and blue.
12. Broadcasters love to gather after work at Jim’s and Annie’s Jims and Annie’s houses.
13. The winners are: are Ralph Jerkins, Penelope Baker, Anthony Perez and Joseph Schwartz
14. I wanted to attend your wedding, however wedding; however, I could not get time off from work.
15. The editor who hires reporters editor, who hires reporters, invited me to apply for a job on his staff.