

Arnold Review Chapters 11-12: Verbs, Verbals, Subject-Verb Agreement

Select the better choice from the options provided.

1. The graphic artist with the headache feels bad badly.
2. The graphic artist draws bad badly.
3. a. He won the award from the institute.
b. He was the receiver of the institute's award.
4. The company is building a new facility. He says said the structure will be completed June 1.
5. a. The group meets at 5 p.m. Tuesday.
b. The group will meet at 5 p.m. Tuesday.
6. I wish I were was the editor.
7. The sports reporter acted as though he were was unsure of what questions to ask.
8. The photographer volunteered to help me watch to watch for the president's car.
9. Being a write-in candidate, McKinney McKinney's name will not appear on the ballot.
10. a. To succeed as an editor, a thorough knowledge of grammar is needed.
b. To succeed as an editor, you need a thorough knowledge of grammar.
11. a. Instead of writing my report, the professor accepted a recording of it.
b. Instead of requiring me to write my report, the professor accepted a recording of it.
12. His brother and business partner is are hospitalized.
13. Here comes come the editor and her assistant.
14. The series of documentaries is are being produced by the station.
15. Three minutes is are considered a long time for a single item in a newscast.
16. The jury is are deliberating.
17. None is are right.
18. Video terminals is are my favorite invention.
19. Half of the computers is are outdated.
20. The criteria criterion is clearly explained.