

Arnold Review – Chapters 8-10: Nouns and Pronouns

Select the better word or best sentence from the options provided.

1. The team is are ready.
2. The faculty is are in their offices.
3. Either the two playgrounds or a swimming pool are is to be build.
4. It was he him who gave me the tool.
5. John and I me won the tournament.
6. Who whom is in the room?
7. You sent the package to who? whom?
8. I myself I like to play soccer.
9. To who To whom did you send the package?
10. I mailed the package to myself me.
11. All of the workers are is exhausted.
12. All of the water is are spilled.
13. His dog Grady, whom who he has been training for two years, will win first in the show.
14. The editor-in-chief checked the resumes of the 15 applicants and told the city editor to hire whoever whomever is best qualified.
15. The elephant elephant that elephant who he rode was named Jumbo.
16. He said that six six people were killed.
17. The supervisor instructed the employee to revise his her their manuscript.
18. The supervisors met with the employees They The workers were concerned.
19. Zoom Shoes wants to improve their its image.
20. Neither the vice president nor the graphic artist lost their jobs his job.
21.
 - a. Each reporter is to complete their assignment.
 - b. Each reporter is to complete his or her assignment.
 - c. All reporters are to complete their assignments.
22.
 - a. The political convention, which is scheduled for April 10-17, will attract 1,200 delegates.
 - b. The political convention scheduled for April 10-17 will attract 1,200 delegates.